

Sylvius Leopold Weiss

(1687 - 1750)

London Suite No.14

Originally for baroque lute in D major

Arranged for Guitar
by Andrew Forrest

The baroque lute for which Weiss wrote had 13 courses including a complete diatonic scale in the bass. I have endeavoured to keep the performance of this piece simple though having to stop the strings for the bass part inevitably makes the piece less easy to perform and it has not been possible to include all the lower range of notes at their original pitch.

This suite include the famous Weiss Passacaille

In the event of a public performance, please include the arranger's name on the programme

The musical score is written for a single melodic line in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It consists of eight staves of music, with measure numbers 18, 20, 23, 25, 29, 32, and 35 indicated at the beginning of their respective staves. The score includes various musical notations such as triplets, trills (tr), and fingering numbers (1-4, 0). Section markers are placed above the staff: 'A' in a box at the start, 'B' in a box at measure 25, and Roman numerals CII, III, IV, and CVIII. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of the eighth staff.
